In addition to the general information mentioned at i to X above, the institution may highlight the following, if it so desired:

History of the Institution	Rangia T. T. College was established in the year 1987 by the local people of Rangia Sub-Division under the district of Kamrup. The college was permitted by Gauhati University in 1991 and then was affiliated from the session 1993-94. It was recognized by ERC-NCTE in the year 2004. The Govt. of Assam accorded concurrence to this college in the year 2010.
Vision Statement	RTTC dreams of transcending itself into a leading and respectable centre for imparting quality education to face the challenges, arising at the time of teaching at secondary level with courage, confidence and success. The goals enlisted in our aims and objectives are not only limited to teacher education but also to aims at a rationally balanced and developed society. We are hopeful and determined and shall ever remain committed for rendering quality teacher education.
Mission and Objectives	Promotion of teacher education through three major components: (i) Theoretical Orientation (ii) School Experiences and (iii) Practical work. Organization of learner-centered, activity-based and participatory learning experiences. Engaging student-teachers to critically examine curriculum, syllabi and text books of secondary stage rather than taking them as 'accepted' without question. Providing opportunity to student-teachers for reflective and independent study instead of teacher directed activities alone. Re-conceptualization of citizenship, education in terms of human rights, protection of environment and constitutional values.
