NOTICE

BOOK DONATION WEEK

"A book is a gift you can open again and again."

The Dr. Bhabendra Nath Saikia Library, Rangia T.T. College, is pleased to announce the celebration of Book Donation Week from 14th November to 20th November 2026 on the occasion of National Library Week, 2026.

In this regard, all the B.Ed. students, FYUGP students, faculty members, staff, Governing Body (GB) members, alumni and well-wishers are cordially invited to participate in this initiative by donating new or gently used books to enrich the library collection and promote a culture of reading, sharing and lifelong learning.

Books may be donated in the following categories:

1. B.Ed. textbooks and reference books.
2. Books on education, pedagogy and teaching-learning.
3. Yearbooks, dictionaries and general reference books.
4. Competitive examination guides (CTET, Assam TET, NET/SLET, etc.).
5. Assamese literature, English classics and regional literature.
6. Biographies, motivational books and other valuable literary works.

Guidelines for Donation:

- Request to donate gently used or new books in a good and usable condition.
- Books with torn pages, missing covers or severe damage will not be accepted.
- A special "Donated By" bookplate will be placed inside each donated book, mentioning the donor's name, batch/department and institution.
- Every donor will receive a Certificate of Appreciation as a token of gratitude.
- Wall of Gratitude: We will set up a chart board outside the library where donors can sign their names and write the title of the book they gifted.

Programme Details:

- Dates: 14th November – 20th November 2026
- Time: 10:00 AM – 4:00 PM
- Venue: Dr. Bhabendra Nath Saikia Library
- Organised by: Dr. Bhabendra Nath Saikia Library, Rangia T.T. College

All members of the college community are encouraged to contribute wholeheartedly to this noble initiative and help to build a richer academic resource centre for future library users.

Let's build a stronger library together!
